24/63: Code of Conduct: Carried forward to enable member to apologise.

24/64: Correspondence: Accounts for the Village Hall, committee declined our invitation to publish on our website. Letter from Coodes c/f to next meeting when there will be a larger cadre of councillors present. Clerk instructed to ascertain locus of solicitors.

24/65: Cllr Hayden arrived

24/66 Reports; The speed monitor has been repositioned on the A388 at Dutson now monitoring north bound traffic.

Dutson defibrillator is back and working. All 3 defibrillators are logged with emergency services.

24/67 Highways and Village Greens: Truscott Green has had further vandalism on 4th August when an agricultural vehicle or similar drove across the green damaging saplings. The sign on Truscott Green is up and tree guards put around the remaining saplings.

It was agreed to cut the verge by Truscott Green, Mr Caudle to liaise with Martin Ashley.

Consideration will be given to a similar sign on VG629 from next year's budget.

426 bus now stopping at the shelter again, users very happy.
